Greetings Compassion Philippines!

I am Rabi Grace Quimco, an LDP scholar who had just graduated from Bachelor of Secondary Education major in Communication Arts in the University of San Carlos. I became part of this scholarship June 2006 until the present.

I am very thankful to God that I became part of the Leadership Development Program of Compassion, and was able to finish college. I really see this as a very big blessing from above, knowing that without this, I would not be where I am now. LDP became a bridge for me to reach another area of my life. It did not only bridge me there, it even goes with me in my everyday journey throughout the 4 challenging years of my college life. I am now strengthened and equipped as you took part in my holistic development. I am now more ready and confident to go further in this chapter of my life. I may not know what lies ahead, but one thing I know is that the God that you made me known will always be with me, my strength and my guide.

Once again, thank you so much for such a blessing of supporting my tertiary education in the University of San Carlos. I and my family will forever cherish you in our hearts, for the wonderful impact you had in our lives. Personally, thank you for making my dream to become a teacher come true! God bless you more!

Forever Grateful,
Rabi Grace V. Quimco
